Supervisors reviewed the renewal of the Gravel Pit Lease between the Township and Fuller Hose. A few changes have been made since the lease that expired at the end of 2025. It was added that Fuller Hose will amend their rental contracts for an alcohol waiver. This would indemnify the Township against any attorney fees and costs from harm or damage that would arise due to the serving of alcohol or other legal controlled substances at any event for which the park is rented. Supervisor Fredrick Shunk made a motion to approve and sign the new lease contingent on the changes being accepted by both parties. Supervisor Russ LaFuria made the second motion. All in favor.

August Neff made the announcement that Township Clean Up Days will be taking place on Friday April 24th and Saturday April 25th. The hours on Friday will be 7:30 am with the gates to close promptly at 6:00 pm and Saturday 7:30 am with the gates to close at 2:00 pm.

Supervisor Fredrick Shunk stated he will be ordering rebar at a cost of $7,700.00 for the construction of the new Pavilion in Gravel Pit Park.

After announcements, a motion to adjourn was received from August Neff at 9:15 am.
Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Erica Carlstrom, Secretary
